

Hello!

Firstly, thank you so much for your interest in being a part of my 100 People Project. Here's a little bit of an overview of the project that may answer some questions or give you a bit more information.

What is the project?

My aim is to photograph and learn about 100 different people through photographing them with a documentary style portrait. I want to celebrate uniqueness, diversity + the everyday.

What will happen to the photos?

At the moment, the only plans for the photos are on my blog jasmineaurora.co.uk and on my instagram 'jasmineauroraphoto'. If the project is completed I would love to publish, but that is a long way off at the moment. I will need you to sign a model release form giving me permission to use the photos.

What will happen on the day of the photo?

Based off of your answers to the initial questions, we will decide a location together that we feel fits the right kind of mood and aesthetic for your photo. The aim is to get one awesome photo; to get there we will probably try a few different scenarios. The way we take the photo will be different for everyone, but it will probably be lightly directed by me. It should take no longer than 30 minutes. I will probably ask you a couple of questions during the session and may ask to record your answers.

If you have any other questions, please feel free to drop me a message.

Jasmine x
